I got a call from a Children's Society saying that they could give special help for children. I interrupted to say that I did not have any children. "What about grandchildren then?"

This firm has been used by two committee members and found very satisfactory

Recently on a litter pick a watch was found in a case in St Martins Close. On the back of it is engraved "Keith Love Dad 17.5.00 " It is in working order. If you know anything about this please contact one of the committee.

Several items from local residents

An elderly couple at the last meeting: She leant across and said to her husband "I just let out a silent fart. What do you think I should do?"

He replied "Put a new battery in your hearing aid!"

Blonde stopped for speeding — Policeman asked to see her license. "I wish you guys would make up your mind! Yesterday you take it away, today you ask to see it!"

Three doctors were discussing favourite patients they liked to treat:

The first said he liked librarians because their organs were alphabetical.

The second, mathematicians because their organs were numerical.

The third said Politicians because they are gutless, heartless, brainless and their heads and their rear ends are interchangeable!

WEB SITE

WHAT DOES CIDTRA DO?

Besides printing and distributing this Newsletter we have good contacts with the Council reporting any damage and chasing the results (sometimes this takes a long time but we keep at it). We attend meetings of the Federation of Residents Associations and also have connections with West Neighbourhood Partnership.

With the local housing office and a warden we are looking at a way to mark car parking spaces in St Martins close to make better use of the space after a request from a resident.

Estate signs are due to be replaced at the top and bottom of Boniface Crescent with an up dated map.

We have asked that the damaged walls are once again repaired and some of the steps.

We are talking about a fun day to be held on Five Acres.

If you have suggestions about what is needed on the Estate please approach us.

What date is your birthday? 28 July.
Which year? Every year!
